london

Huge thank you to:

Capital Gardens (Neal's Nursery, Heathfield Rd, Wandsworth), www.capitalgardens.co.uk for supplying the wonderful prizes for the treasure trail.

Cultivate London (www.cultivatelondon.org) for looking after the herb gardens so beautifully in tricky spring conditions.

Rebecca Frayn, Turnham Green Friends and Bud Murryweather for the Herbal Knot Garden at Turnham Green

60 herb garden hosts:

See the map for all the Chiswick businesses that have sponsored a garden and supported this project. Special thanks to Union Jacks, Top Hat, Whisk, Hack & Veldt, Polomo and Potpourri.

Charity shop herb garden sponsors:

HSBC and Waitrose Community Matters scheme who each sponsored extra herb gardens

Also thanks to:

London Borough of Hounslow for permitting us to run this festival, and to John Laing and LBH for prompt and good-natured assistance - beyond the call of duty!

And to all the volunteers who were involved in the project in any way.

With special thanks to Nick Fletcher, Sally Beedance, Ann Rix and Sue Fennimore.

Climbing plants grown by Cavendish School, William Hogarth School and Cultivate London.

Butterflies created by Belmont School, Grove Park School, William Hogarth School.

Bees created by St Mary's Convent Nursing Home.

Herb gardens assembled by Hammersmith & Fulham youth reparation group.

Willow obelisks woven by volunteers from the Egham & Staines Conservation Volunteers & Spelthorne Tree Wardens at Shepperton Willow Plantation.

Vintage fruit crates, rosemary and lavender plants sourced by Petersham Nurseries

Abundance London is run completely by volunteers from Chiswick and the surrounding area, motivated by enthusiasm and a lack of self-discipline about what is possible and sensible to undertake. We rely on goodwill from the local population, who either tolerate our activities or even encourage us in various ways. If you would like to be informed of our projects and autumn fruit harvesting, or might like to volunteer, check out our website and subscribe at www.abundancelondon.com
